

CHRISTINE DONOVAN
DONOR SERVICES OFFICER

Prior to joining The Columbus Foundation, Christine was Director of Advancement and Strategic Planning for Cristo Rey Columbus High School, where she grew fundraising revenue by 188 percent over a three-year period. During her time there, Christine also established the organization's first planned giving initiative, launched a permanent major gifts program, and instituted a donor relations program, including mailings and a donor recognition event.

Before her role at Cristo Rey, Christine served at The Ohio State University Foundation as the Assistant Director of Development, College of Medicine and prior to that the Development and Alumni Affairs Intern for the Moritz College of Law. While at the OSU Foundation, she managed a portfolio of donors and prospects, promoted planned giving strategies to the young professional staff, and built relationships across departments and jointly secured major gifts.

Christine, a Certified Fund Raising Executive, received her bachelor's degree from the University of Notre Dame, and her master's and juris doctor from The Ohio State University. Active in the community, she volunteers with The Women's Fund of Central Ohio and the Ohio Public Interest Law Foundation, and is a member of the Association for Fundraising Professionals, Charitable Gift Planners of Central Ohio, and the Columbus Metropolitan Club.

To reach Christine, email cdonovan@columbusfoundation.org.